

A-level Immersion Talks

1.15 - 1.50 pm

Hi-Pod

Date	Subject	Topic Focus
Monday 13 December	Psychology	Battle Royale: should children be allowed to play violent video games?
Tuesday 14 December	Economics	The value of macroeconomic data.
Wednesday 15 December	Theatre Studies	Exploring theatrical styles in Theatre.
Thursday 16 December	Geography	The Global Economic Shift: the re-emergence of China.
Wednesday 5 January	Biology	The basics of genetic inheritance.
Thursday 6 January	Business	Jeff Bezos founded Amazon in 1994. To what extent is Jeff Bezos an efficient leader?
Friday 7 January	English	The Roaring Twenties: new wealth and hedonism.
Monday 10 January	Politics	Has Populism crushed democracy?
Tuesday 11 January	Maths	Exploring applications of maths in modern Britain.
Wednesday 12 January	EPQ	What are academics currently debating about the past – and how could it make for an effective EPQ?
Thursday 13 January	Sociology	Children today are much more protected and privileged than children 100 years ago. Do you agree?
Friday 14 January	Art	Art Today – what does it mean to be an artist?
Monday 17 January	Photography	Through the lens – exploring the boundaries of Abstraction and Fine Art Photography.
Tuesday 18 January	MFL	Exploring languages at A-level.
Wednesday 19 January	Physics	Right back to the big bang – what happened next?
Thursday 20 January	History	Why is it so difficult to understand why the Holocaust happened?

Monday 24 January	Media Studies	Do music videos promote misogyny and sexualisation of women?
Tuesday 25 January	Chemistry	Thalidomide - the importance of isomerism in pharmaceutical chemistry.
Wednesday 26 January	Music	Can you imagine life without Music?
Thursday 27 January	Film Studies	Trailblazers: how Classic Hollywood paved the way for modern cinematography.
Monday 28 January	Sports Studies	Myth busting – are energy drinks good for you?