

Subject: History A-level (Enrichment Material)

Know It (Knowledge)	Use It (Application)	Stretch It (Development)
Watch 'Mississippi Burning' (1988.) This is currently on Netflix or as the History Department for their copy.	Identify The portrayal of African Americans during the 1950s and 60s. Research The Freedom Summer of 1964 and the murders of Andrew Goodman, James Chaney, Michael Schwerner. Follow Link 1 to help (below)	Investigate How close to fact was the film? Follow Link 2 to help you (below)
Read or watch 'To Kill a Mockingbird' (1962.)	Identify Who are the main characters? What are their perceptions of race in the novel? How do their perceptions of race change during the novel? What is the significance of Boo Radley? What is the significance of the Trial of Tom Robinson – what does the verdict show about race relations in the South?	Investigate What does the book suggest about race relations in the 1930s? What were race relations like during the 1950s in the south of the USA when the book was written? How would the novel change perceptions of race relations in the USA during the 1950s?
Watch A holocaust survivor's testimony about life in Nazi Germany. Follow Link 3 for some examples (below)	Identify What was life like for Jews during the Holocaust? What people/groups were responsible for the Holocaust occurring? How did the Holocaust happen?	Evaluate The extent to which Hitler was solely responsible for the holocaust occurring. Reading the interview of Ian Kershaw, who does he believe is responsible for the Holocaust? See Link 4 (below)

Links to websites used in this A-level enrichment sheet:

Link 1: <https://www.fbi.gov/history/famous-cases/mississippi-burning>

Link 2: <https://www.nytimes.com/1988/12/04/movies/film-fact-vs-fiction-in-mississippi.html>

Link 3: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gqLjAP5cUOY>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5uAYpTljin4M>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MCTfWeNyK04>

Link 4: http://ww2history.com/experts/Sir_Ian_Kershaw/Hitler_and_the_Holocaust